

As a retired journalist and publisher I have seen the damage done to the public by allowing a small number of entities to own a large number of media outlets. Our Democracy depends upon dispersing ownership of the media as far as possible, not centralizing it. Please, please reverse the current trend toward centralization.